

AI Content Editor

Description

Outlier helps the world's most innovative companies improve their AI models by providing human feedback. In this role, you will become an AI Content Editor, assessing the quality of AI-generated writing, reviewing the work of fellow writers, and crafting original responses to prompts in order to teach the model what truly excellent writing looks like. While we will be selective in terms of writing ability, we are actively recruiting for this role and encourage you to apply if you feel you would be a good fit. More questions? You'll have an opportunity to speak with a member of our team during your onboarding. Highlights: Flexible work schedule: Work whenever and wherever you want Weekly payouts: Automatically receive timely payments (no invoicing!) Unlock opportunities: Gain experience in the field that will dominate the next decade and beyond What you'll be doing: Rating the quality of AI-generated writing on rubrics such as factuality, completeness, brevity, and grammatical correctness Reviewing the work of fellow human writers Responding to prompts with top-tier original writing Requirements: Currently enrolled in or completed an Associates degree or higher from an accredited institution A strong sense of writing style paired with exceptional English-language spelling and grammar A critical eye and the ability to clearly explain the strengths and weaknesses of a given piece of text This opportunity is currently open to people who live in the following countries: United States, Canada, New Zealand, Australia, United Kingdom, and Ireland Compensation Up to $15 USD per hour pending resume review and skills assessment. No earnings limit. You will be eligible for weekly project and referral rewards.
