

Manager Israel Action and Addressing Antisemitism Program

Description

Hillel International is looking for a passionate and creative professional to serve as Manager for our Israel Action and Addressing Antisemitism Program (IAP). The ideal candidate will deeply understand engaging students and campus communities in proactive Israel programming. They will leverage their relationship-building experience to mentor and support Hillel professionals effectively. Working closely with Hillel International and local Hillel teams, the Manager will contribute to the development of impactful Israel and Antisemitism education and engagement initiatives, responding adeptly to anti-Israel and antisemitic challenges on campuses. The IAP Manager will report to the Associate Director of the IAP, functioning as an integral part of the IAP team. Candidates based in the Eastern time zone are preferred, and the role, though remote, involves approximately 40% travel. The salary for this position ranges from $50,000 to $60,000.00. What You'll Do Provide support to Hillels addressing anti-Israel and antisemitic activities on campus Assist a cohort of campuses in developing and implementing Israel education and engagement programs Create proactive educational programming initiatives Foster and sustain relationships with pro-Israel partner organizations at local and regional levels Serve as a campus consultant for Hillels facing crises and catalysts, as required Develop joint programming opportunities for multiple Hillels, including international initiatives Manage programs designed to engage Hillel student leaders in proactive Israel programming Who we're looking for Demonstrated understanding of Middle East affairs and Israel's current landscape Experience in informal education Background in the Jewish communal/non-profit sector Basic proficiency in Hebrew Experience working with Israelis and/or diverse cultures A bachelor's degree in a related field preferred Skills and experience 1-5 years of experience in a related field Adaptable and eager to learn on the go Composed under pressure and crises Outgoing and skilled in relationship-building Experienced consensus builder, navigating diverse stakeholders Community organization skills Excellent verbal and written communication skills Strong organizational abilities Comfortable with ambiguity Independent work capabilities Able to manage multiple projects concurrently Genuine interest and personal connection to Israel What You'll Get The salary range is $50,000-$60,000. Hillel offers a comprehensive benefits plan, including medical, dental, and vision insurance, paid time off for Jewish and federal holidays, a flexible work-from-home policy, and professional development opportunities through Hillel U and partner organizations. Time Zones and Remote Workplace Our remote team welcomes applications from North America in the Eastern time zone with eligibility to work in the United States. We maintain a flexible work schedule that supports employees in achieving success professionally and personally. Regular in-person gatherings, training, and conferences are expected, despite the remote nature of the position. Next Steps Applications close on May 17th. The formal interview process begins on May 20th and we're hoping to hire our IAP Manager by June 7th. Hillel is an equal-opportunity employer committed to fostering an inclusive environment for all. Please mention the word AMITY and tag RMzQuODUuMTMyLjI1Mw== when applying to show you read the job post completely (#RMzQuODUuMTMyLjI1Mw==). This is a beta feature to avoid spam applicants. Companies can search these words to find applicants that read this and see they're human.

Contacts

Job listing via RemoteOK.com

Hiring organization

Hillel International

Job Location

Remote

Base Salary

$ 70000 - $ 90000

Date posted

May 5, 2024

Apply Now

