

Vice President Product

Description

The VP, Product is responsible for leading the company's product strategy and execution, driving growth and innovation within the cryptocurrency industry. This individual will not only lead BitPay's product offerings but also align short-term objectives with a visionary long-term outlook. Grounded in user testing and data-driven insights, they will serve as the champion of BitPay's customer base, improving the user experience while moving the company toward its strategic objectives. Moreover, they will foster seamless collaboration across departments to ensure execution and alignment with overarching business goals. At the center of this role is the responsibility to encourage a high-performing product team, encouraging a culture of innovation and customer-centricity. Responsibilities: Lead the product management team in executing a product roadmap aligned with company objectives. Continuously refine product management processes to foster seamless collaboration and innovation. Lead and develop effective product and product design teams, mentoring people and fostering a culture of excellence. Leverage data analysis and consumer insights to drive informed product decisions and strategic improvements. Monitor performance metrics against company goals to improve outcomes. Establish workflows to improve operational efficiency and product development cycles. Take ownership of product metrics, translating them into actionable goals that drive continuous improvement and innovation. Advocate for BitPay's customers, translating insights into tangible, enhanced user experiences. Contribute to the company strategy as an integral member of BitPay's leadership team. Other related tasks as assigned Requirements: A minimum of 8 years of experience in product management, with at least 5 years in senior product leadership roles, preferably within the crypto industry. Demonstrate a data-driven approach to product leadership, leveraging insights to make informed decisions. Exhibit confidence in navigating both B2B and B2C environments, with an understanding of the unique challenges and opportunities presented by each. Articulate a clear vision, with a proven ability to execute strategic initiatives that drive measurable results. A track record of success in leading high-performing product management teams, fostering a culture of excellence and innovation. Embrace innovation while benchmarking against industry standards, demonstrating an entrepreneurial spirit and adaptability. Communicate effectively and mentorship skills to inspire and empower team members. Flexibility, positivity, and a collaborative mindset, thriving in a fast-paced environment where challenges are viewed as opportunities for growth. Experience in the fintech or payments industry, crypto experience is a plus! What We Offer: Collaborate with a team of intelligent, enthusiastic individuals. Thrive in a rapidly expanding crypto company with global reach, where your contributions make a tangible impact. Work remote with a generous vacation policy, including the opportunity to take a sabbatical and select your own holidays.
