

Freelance Music Writer Nylon

Description

NYLON is seeking a freelance Music writer. The ideal candidate will have 1-3 years of experience writing in a fast-paced online environment, a strong sense for news and unique angles, and be confident conducting interviews with a range of subjects. An interest in music culture is a must, as well as the ability to pitch and execute outside-the-box story ideas on a daily basis. Candidates must feel comfortable turning around reported features and op-eds on a tight deadline, as well as compiling SEO-optimized entertainment stories, identifying on-brand entertainment news, as well as breaking viral trends on platforms like TikTok and YouTube, and so much more. The ideal candidate should be an experienced writer who is in-the-know about the biggest entertainment and music stories of the moment, and ready to get in on the conversation from the NYLON point of view. An interest in and experience with securing exclusive interviews; networking, nurturing and maintaining strong industry contacts; and a desire to produce creative and impactful content is a must. NYLON's music coverage is inclusive, informative, and cutting edge. In your cover letter, please tell us your favorite music topics to cover, as well as your favorite sources for music news.
