Operations Program Manager

Description

Grammarly team members in this role must be based in the United States, and they must be able to collaborate in person 3 weeks per quarter, traveling if necessary to the hub(s) where the team is based. The opportunity Grammarly is the world's leading AI writing assistance company trusted by over 30 million people and 70,000 professional teams every day. From instantly creating a first draft to perfecting every message, Grammarly's product offerings help people at 96% of the Fortune 500 get their point across and get results. Grammarly has been profitable for over a decade because we've stayed true to our values and built an enterprise-grade product that is secure, reliable, and helps people do their best work without selling their data. We're proud to be one of Inc.'s best workplaces, a Glassdoor Best Place to Work, one of TIME's 100 Most Influential Companies, and one of Fast Company's Most Innovative Companies in AI. To achieve our ambitious goals, we're seeking a creative and forward-thinking Operations Program Manager to join our team. Your impact As an Operations Program Manager, you are a founding team member of our Engineering, Product, and Design (EPD) Operations group. You will help create the best pathways to connect our teams across EPD and within Grammarly as we scale to reach our aspirations. In this role, you will: Lead Awesome Projects: Be the maestro of multiple programs, guiding them from ideation to launch. Craft detailed project plans that translate the strategic landscape, company goals, and EPD ways of working. Spot risks and hiccups early and come up with creative solutions to keep things running smoothly. Boost Operational Magic: Dive into our operations, find improvement areas, and improve them. Set and track KPIs to measure success and keep us on the path to greatness. Implement best practices to ensure we're pressing the envelope on prime effectiveness. Champion Cross-Functional Harmony: Foster seamless communication and collaboration between Engineering, Product, and Design teams. Lead the creation and dissemination of internal communications, such as newsletters, podcasts/ video content, and other updates, emphasizing fresh and engaging content and distribution mechanisms that resonate with a diverse workforce. Bridge the gap between technical and non-technical teams, ensuring everyone is on the same page. Become a Resource Wizard: Manage resources (and find resources) like a pro to meet program goals and deadlines. Cultivate a positive and supportive team atmosphere where everyone thrives. Share the Story: Prepare and present regular updates to stakeholders, showcasing progress and achievements. Ensure EPD is not a black box! Help us share our message, story, successes, and failures across the business so we can all grow together. We're looking for someone who: Embodies our EAGER values: is ethical, adaptable, gritty, empathetic, and remarkable. Is inspired by our MOVE principles, which are the blueprint for how things get done at Grammarly: move fast and learn faster, obsess about creating customer value, value impact over activity, and embrace healthy disagreement rooted in trust. Is able to collaborate in person 3 weeks per quarter, traveling if necessary to the hub where the team is based. Has a Bachelor's degree in Business, Engineering, Project Management, or a related field; a Master's degree is a bonus. Bring 7+ years of experience in program/project management, especially in tech or product development. Has a proven track record of leading cross-functional teams and managing complex projects. Understands engineering, product development, and design processes inside and out. Demonstrates rock-star organizational and time-management skills are top-notch. Has excellent communication and can influence and collaborate at all levels. Is proficient with project management tools like Jira,
