

Account Manager

Description

ðŸŽ“ THE FREEDOM + THE CHALLENGE ðŸŽ“ Completely remote, of course. Flexible hours. Part time, about 20 hours per week. Sometimes it's 30 hours per week, sometimes it's less. You're supported and encouraged to do other work, or whatever you like, when you're not working on this. You work whenever you like.ðŸ§ YouâŸ“re going to soak up a massive amount of experience and learning from this role.#1 requirement: US English#2 requirement: US TimezoneWeâŸ“re an exciting digital marketing company. Very few people offer our service, it's rare, and people really want it.Account Management + Inbound SalesðŸŸ¥ We get lots of potential customers coming to us via our website. They ask about our digital marketing offerings, and we need someone who has great email game, who is on the ball, to catch every email, follow up diligently and convert those warm leads into customers. They are yours to lose.ðŸŽ“ High-value customers often ask us for a call, so (once you have done some training) you will schedule a call / zoom with them at a time that suits you both, and answer their questions.ðŸŽ“ When you put this crown on, and take up the responsibility, you can work whatever hours you like. But if you aren't on the ball every day, regularly checking the email accounts and replying, then you're failing. In exchange for this responsibility, you get great freedoms and great pay. Training on the specifics of our business will be provided, you don't have to know about digital marketing or SEO, don't stress about that. Thanks for applying!
