

Sales Development Representative

Description

Hi ðŹŹŹŹ weâŹŹŹŹre Glean. We make study software that improves your confidence and ability to learn. WeâŹŹŹŹre a SaaS scale up and one of the fastest growing tech companies in the North. ThereâŹŹŹŹ 100+ of us around the UK with our HQ in Leeds. Our software is award-winning and used by 100,000s of students at over 800 universities & colleges worldwide. WeâŹŹŹŹre growing so we can achieve our mission to support 1 million students to become better learners by 2026. The role of Sales Development Representative: The Sales Development Representative (SDR) role is a springboard for ambitious, commercially-minded individuals. As a critical member of our B2B sales team, you'll be the first point of contact for potential customers, acting as a vital Glean ambassador. You'll leverage your positive attitude, communication skills, and deep understanding of customer needs to identify leads, establish conversations, qualify and nurture them, ultimately helping solve problems and accelerate our growth. Meet the team: The Glean Sales team is made up of two areas that work seamlessly together: Our Account Executive Team consisting of one Account Executive and two Senior Account Executives. And our Sales Development Representative team, led by our SDR Team Lead (Scott) and supported by our two Sales Development Representatives (Elliott & Jordan). Together, our team focuses on North American Higher Educational sales, led by our Sales Manager (Issy). What youâŹŹŹŹll be doing: Prospecting: You'll be finding high-quality leads, utilising various techniques like cold calling, email outreach, and social selling to connect with our ideal customers. Qualification: You'll understand potential customers' needs and challenges, ensuring Glean would be a good support for their students. This involves conducting discovery calls, asking questions that align with the MEDDPICC sales method, and gathering information on market trends and news. Relationship Building: You'll build rapport with disability services professionals, becoming a trusted advisor and generating excitement about Glean. Pipeline: You'll progress qualified leads through the sales funnel, scheduling demos with Account Executives and ensuring a smooth handoff. Data: You'll leverage data and analytics to track your progress, measure success, and continually refine your approach. Collaboration: Throughout this process, you'll collaborate closely with the Sales Development Representatives, Account Executives, and the Demand Marketing team. This collaboration will involve identifying strategic targets for outreach and developing targeted prospecting sequences. Your first 3 months ðŹŹŹŹ Week 1-2: Getting to grips with Glean, the market and our systems and processes. Introductions to your immediate SDR team and the wider sales and marketing teams. ðŹŹŹŹ Week 2-4: You will have begun making your first calls and emails to prospects, getting to learn about the market from the market, and you will be making that unforgettable first booking! ðŹŹŹŹ Month 1-2: You will be increasing your knowledge and confidence within the market through call role plays, team call feedback session and sales training. You will also begin to start writing your own email sequences. YouâŹŹŹŹll have a good understanding of the CRM, and youâŹŹŹŹll be on your way to hitting target. ðŹŹŹŹ Month 2-3: You will continue to develop your knowledge and skills, building on the training you have received in the first two months. You will prospect your own leads and run your own email campaigns that will contribute to you hitting or surpassing your monthly target! About you: Essential: Exceptional communication skills, both oral and written, coupled with excellent listening skills and a positive and energetic phone presence. Self-motivated with a diligent work ethic and excellent organisational skills. Ability to work independently as well as part of a team in a fast-paced environment. 1+ years of sales or customer service experience A passion and focus for sales and a drive to succeed Bonus / Nice to have: Experience in our SaaS/EdTech (or a similar B2B space) Familiarity with Hubspot CRM
